

Valerio Letizia

Associate

Disputes, litigation and arbitration

Primary practice

Disputes, litigation and arbitration

About Valerio Letizia

Valerio is an associate in our Dispute Resolution team based in Rome, Italy.

Valerio acts for national and international clients in both domestic and multi-jurisdictional commercial disputes before Italian Courts and arbitral tribunals. His experience includes advising on antitrust follow-on actions, anti-bribery and white collar matters. Valerio is an active member of our pro bono team.

Valerio graduated from Roma Tre University and obtained a master's degree from the University of Oxford.

Of Italian mother tongue, Valerio speaks English and French, and has a basic knowledge of Portuguese.

Recent work

- Acting for a multinational manufacturing company in insurance litigation stemming from construction disputes in the UK.
- Advising a leading multinational truck manufacturer on damages claims alleging antitrust infringements following a cartel fine imposed by the EU Commission.
- Conducting an internal investigation for a major telecommunication service group pending criminal proceedings against former directors.
- Assisting a leading automotive group during the investigation for alleged manipulation of its vehicles' emissions and related misrepresentations to consumers.

Qualifications

Education

- University of Oxford, Wolfson College (MJur, with distinction)
- Roma Tre University (JD, magna cum laude)

Professional qualifications

- Member of the Italian Bar, Rome (avvocato)

Contact Valerio

valerio.letizia@freshfields.com

Rome

Via Barberini, 86

T +39 06 695 331

F +39 06 695 33800