

Leonhard Prasser

Principal Associate
People and reward

Primary practice
People and reward

About Leonhard Prasser

Leonhard specialises in employment law and company pension law.

He advises on individual and collective labour law issues and company pensions, and on employment issues in M&A and restructuring projects.

While at Freshfields, Leonhard completed secondments in the firm's London and Madrid offices.

Leonhard is fluent in German and English.

Recent work

- Advising Mayr-Melnhof on the sale of two fresh fiber carton plants to Oaktree Capital Management, L.P.
- Advising MAN SE on the sale of the MAN plant in Steyr to WSA Beteiligungs GmbH ("Steyr Automotive").
- Advising a multinational trading company in a litigation against its former management board member.
- Advising Bristol Myers Squibb in connection with the acquisition of Celgene and related integration steps.
- Advising KWS on a global restructuring project affecting for more than 30 countries.
- Advising adesso AG on the foundation of an SE and the associated employee participation process.
- Advising LG on the €1,1bn acquisition of the automotive supplier ZKW Group.
- Advising Hawesko on its acquisition of Wein&Co.
- Advising UniCredit/Bank Austria on the restructuring of the occupational pension scheme and transfer to the state scheme.
- Advising a large multinational distribution company in the automotive sector on working time arrangements and other employment matters.
- Advising various clients on the implementation of video surveillance systems and whistleblowing policies.

Qualifications

Education

- University of Vienna, Austria (Mag)
- Vienna University of Business Administration, Austria (BSc)

Professional qualifications

- Admitted to the Austrian bar

Contact Leonhard

leonhard.prasser@freshfields.com

Vienna

Seilergasse 16

1010 Vienna

T +43 1 515 15 683

F +43 1 512 63 94