

Sabine Prossinger

Counsel

Disputes, litigation and arbitration

The secret of success is to understand the position of the other side

Primary practice

Disputes, litigation and arbitration

About Sabine Prossinger

Sabine specialises in litigation, with a focus on company, commercial, insolvency and insurance law.

She has expertise and extensive experience in cross-border litigation, class-action proceedings and multijurisdictional enforcement matters, especially in high-profile litigation cases.

Sabine acts for companies in a wide range of industries, with a special focus on the energy, banking and insurance sectors.

She has published several articles about Austrian class action and Austrian anti-bribery provisions and also held various client briefings.

With Thomas Kustor, Sabine has also contributed to a new commentary on the Austrian Code of Civil Procedure. Edited by leading Austrian professors, the volume will be published in due course.

She speaks German and English.

Recent work

- Advising one of the largest financial institutions in Germany in a dispute following the nationalisation of an Austrian bank.
- Representing a group of leading Austrian electric power companies in various disputes (more than 40 court proceedings) concerning pricing issues.
- Advising on enforcement and liquidation proceedings initiated on the basis of decisions issued by UK courts.
- Defending a major global technology group against claims made by a customer after a compliance investigation.
- Advising one of the major automotive groups in Germany in disputes following a decision of the German Federal Motor Transport Authority.

Qualifications

Education

- University of Vienna, Austria (doctor of law)

Professional memberships

- Austrian Bar Association

Contact Sabine

sabine.prossinger@freshfields.com

Vienna

Seilergasse 16

1010 Vienna

T +43 1 515 15 0

F +43 1 512 63 94